Marketing Messages:

In addition to the purposes described above, we may, in compliance with applicable consent requirements, use Your Information to provide you with advertisements, promotions and information about products and services tailored to you and your needs. This may include using demographic data or trend data provided by third parties (eg Google Analytics), where permitted. Contact details, including phone numbers and email addresses, may be used to contact you. If you do not want me to use Your Information in this way, you can simply choose not to give your permission on the web pages and/or forms with which we collect Your Information. You can also exercise this right at any time by unsubscribing from promotional emails.

Tracking Technologies & Do-Not-Track Cookies Cookies:

A cookie is a commonly used automated data collection tool. Cookies are small text files that are placed on your computer or device by websites that you visit or HTML-formatted emails you open, in order to make websites work, or work more efficiently. I may use cookies, web beacons, pixel tags, scripts or other similar technologies on my websites or emails to, among other things:

- Tailor information presented to you based on your browsing preferences, such as language and geographical region;
- Collect statistics regarding your website usage;
- Provide me with business and marketing information; and
- In some cases, to enable a third party to deliver future advertising for my products and services to you when you visit certain websites owned by third parties.

We use different kinds of cookies:

- Essential cookies are necessary to provide you with services and features available through my websites. Without these cookies, services you may need, such as shopping carts or e-billing, cannot be provided.
- Analytics or customization cookies collect information that is either used in aggregate form to help us understand how the website is being used or how effective our marketing campaigns are, or to help me customize the website for you.
- Advertising cookies and tracking scripts are used to make advertising messages more relevant to you. They perform functions like preventing the same ad from continuously reappearing, ensuring that ads are properly delivered and, in some cases, featuring ads based on your interests.

If you do not wish to receive cookies you may be able to refuse them by adjusting your browser settings to reject cookies. If you do so, we may be unable to offer you some of our functionalities, services or support. If you have previously visited my websites, you may also have to delete any existing cookies from your browser. I gather certain information automatically and store it in log files. This information may include Internet protocol (IP) addresses, browser type, internet service provider (ISP), referring/exit pages, operating system, date/time stamp, and/or clickstream data. We may combine this log information with other information we collect about you. We do this to improve services we offer you, to improve marketing, analytics, or site functionality. We use Local Storage, such as HTML5, to store content information and preferences. Third parties with whom I partner to provide certain features on our website or to display advertising based upon your web browsing activity also use HTML5 to collect and store information. Various browsers may offer their own management tools for removing HTML5.

Do-Not-Track:

There are different ways you can prevent tracking of your online activity. One of them is setting a preference in your browser that alerts websites you visit that you do not want them to collect certain information about you. This is referred to as a Do-Not-Track (“DNT”) signal. Please note that our websites may not recognize or take action in response to DNT signals from Web browsers. At this time, there is no universally accepted standard for what a company should do when a DNT signal is detected. In the event a final standard is established, I will assess how to appropriately respond to these signals.

For more detailed information about cookies, Do-Not-Track and other tracking technologies, please visit allaboutcookies.org and allaboutdnt.com.

Third Party Data Collection:

This may also include cookies placed by third parties, to deliver tailored information and content which may be of interest to you, such as promotions or offerings, when you visit third party websites after you have left my websites. We do not permit these third parties to collect personal information about you (such as email address) on my site, nor do we disclose with them any personal information about you.

Social Media Features and Widgets:

Our website include social media features, such as Facebook’s “Like” button, and widgets, such as the “Share This” button, or interactive mini-programs that run on our site. These features are usually recognizable by their third party brand or logo and may collect your IP address, which page you are visiting on our websites, and set a cookie to enable the feature to work properly. Social media features and widgets are either hosted by a third party or hosted directly on our site. Your interactions with these features are governed by the privacy policy of the company providing it.

How We Disclose Your Information:

We do not sell, lease, rent or give away Your Information. We only disclose Your Information as described below, within our group of brands, with our partners, with service providers that process information on our behalf and with law enforcement. Processing is only undertaken for the purposes described in this Statement. If we disclose Your Information, we require those we disclose it with to comply with adequate privacy and confidentiality requirements, and security standards.

Partners:

We may provide Your Information to our partners for the sole purpose of allowing them to conduct Australian Short Term Rental Accommodation – ASTRA business. Our partners go through a certification process and only after that are they authorized to promote and sell my products and services. Our partners may use Your Information to communicate with you and others about Australian Short Term Rental Accommodation – ASTRA products or services. Service Providers Processing Data On My Behalf:

We may use contractors and service providers to process Your Information on my behalf for the purposes described in this Statement. We contractually require service providers to keep information secure and confidential and we do not allow my data processors to disclose your information to others without my authorization, or to use it for their own purposes. However, if you have an independent relationship with these service providers their privacy statements will apply.

Law Enforcement:

In certain instances, it may be necessary for Australian Short Term Rental Accommodation – ASTRA to disclose Your personal information to government officials or otherwise as required by applicable law. No personal information will be disclosed to any law enforcement agency or governmental agency except in response to:

- A subpoena, warrant or other process issued by a court of competent jurisdiction;
- A legal process having the same consequence as a court-issued request for information, in that if Australian Short Term Rental Accommodation – ASTRA was to refuse to provide such information, it would be in breach of local law, and it or its officers, executives or employees would be subject to liability for failing to honor such legal process;
- Where such disclosure is necessary for Australian Short Term Rental Accommodation – ASTRA to enforce its legal rights pursuant to the laws of the jurisdiction from which such information was gathered;
- A request for information with the purpose of identifying and/or preventing credit card fraud; or
- Where such disclosure is necessary to prevent or lessen a serious and imminent threat of bodily harm to the data subject.
